

IN MEMORY OF: Joey Cox

Joey Cox, age 56 of Scottsville, passed away on Saturday, January 8, 2011 at his residence.

He was born on November 13, 1954 in Owenton, Kentucky.

He is survived by his wife, Judy Ann Lawson Cox of Scottsville; step-daughters Jerri Lynn Miller and husband Jonathon of Bowling Green, Jennifer Cline and husband James Williams of Bowling Green, Josette Carter and husband Todd of Scottsville; seven step-grandchildren; 8 step-great-grandchildren; sister, Sharon Cox of Scottsville; niece, Hillary Minix; and nephew, Phillip Minix. Joey was born in Owenton Kentucky, and was adopted at the age of six months by Bobby and Mildred Cox. Joey graduated from Allen County High School in 1973. He married Judy Ann Lawson on January 6, 1996 during a blizzard. They recently celebrated their 15th anniversary at Cracker Barrel. His love was music and playing his guitar. Joey had been playing with the Flap Jack Band. He was a member of the Hickory Hill Methodist Church but had recently been attending New Bethel United Methodist Church.

Funeral service will be conducted on Tuesday, January 11, 2011 at 11:00 A.M. at Strode Funeral Home in Scottsville with burial in the Hickory Hill Cemetery.

Friends may call after 11:00 A.M. on Monday at the Strode Funeral Home in Scottsville.